People in the News

New Practice

Richard C. Unger Jr. has opened his own law office in suburban Philadelphia. For the last 18 years, Unger practiced law with Duane Morris & Heckscher.

In his new practice, Unger will continue to assist local businesses and business owners in making acquisitions, completing real estate transactions and planning for the transfer of ownership to the next generation.

The Law Office of Richard C. Unger Jr. is located at 100 Four Falls Corporate Center, Suite 300, West Conshohocken, Pa., 19428-2983. Telephone: 610-940-4190.

Associates

Margolis Edelstein has announced the addition of Leigh Adele Aberbach, Jonathan Cass, Joanne Salimbeno Cobb, Nicole Gerson, Jay Eric Kagan and Timothy P. Search as associates.

Award

Roslyn Litman, president of the Pittsburgh firm Litman Litinan Harris & Brown and adjunct professor at the University of Pittsburgh School of Law, is the recipient of the 1996 Roscoe Pound Award for Excellence in Teaching Trial Advocacy.

Litman was chosen among 13 candidates from law schools across the U.S. by the Roscoe Pound Foundation, an educational arm of the Association of Trial Lawyers of America.

Her efforts inspired a Pitt trial Advocacy program that now includes seven or eight trial simulation classes a year, a bi-annual trial advocacy institute, and most recently, a law school-affiliated general litigation chapter of the American Inns of Court.

Speakers

Steven L. Sugarman, founding principal of Steven L. Sugarman & Associates, was the featured speaker at the Community Associations Institute's kick-off program recently held at the Sheraton Plaza Hotel in King of Prussia.

Sugarman's topic, Closing the Gap: Rethinking Community Association Insurance, addressed innovative models for eliminating gaps in insurance coverage for community associations and their members. A frequent lecturer for CAI, Sugarman presented a similar program at CAI's National Conference in Baltimore last October.
